MAXWELL TERMS & CONDITIONS

- In the event of any guests showing signs of intoxication, either upon arrival or throughout booking, under SAPOL rules and regulations, nominated guests will be asked to leave the property immediately or further action will be taken.
- In the situation where damaged is caused or excessive cleaning is required to any area of the estate during your visit, Maxwell reserves the right to charge the credit card held for the cost of repair/ cleaning.
- All alcohol must be purchased from Maxwell Wines. There is a selection of beers and non-alcoholic beverages available to purchase as well as wines and mead.
- Beverages must be pre-ordered 7 days prior to your booking so that we have stock cold and packed ready for your arrival.
- Glassware can be loaned from cellar door with a credit card guarantee to cover the cost of any breakages ($15 per glass charge applies for missing or broken glassware)
- Some food items are available to pre-purchase from Cellar Door; alternatively, BYO food is permitted in the picnic grounds although Maxwell do not allow BBQ's or any cooking equipment to be used.
- Guests are welcome to bring picnic rugs and chairs; prior consent must be obtained from Maxwell management for any personalisation to the area, ie. Decorations, shading structures, external catering etc.
- Portable bathroom facilities are available for guests using the picnic grounds, located on the bottom car park of the property. We ask that you refrain from using the restaurant bathrooms as these are reserved for restaurant diners.
- We recommend bringing esky's with ice to keep wine chilled.
- Full refund for cancellation due to unforeseen circumstances including extreme weather may be given at the discretion of management.
- Bookings are for a set 2-hour duration and available between 10am – 4pm with the last booking at 2pm.
- Payment is required in full at the time of booking in order to confirm.
- Due to increased labour costs, public holiday's will incur an additional charge of $150

I acknowledge having read and understood the outlined information and will comply with all aspects of such conditions.
